

Every refection of
morn morn & day &

Weymouth Oct. 16. 1838.

Dear Maria,

I arrived safely at Weymouth,
not getting wet in the least. we are pretty well.
I think Aunt Priscilla looks rather better. Harry is well. She & the children are up at Grandmas house being invited to come up & pass the night. Miss Susan left a red stamp at Grandmas this afternoon & offered to take a letter. I wrote this in order to hear from you to morrow night. Any thing sent to Mrs Isabell's will come out safe. Write & send all the news & the latest as I dont know any paper but the Advocate. I suppose Debora is at Cornbridgeport. Perhaps Miss Hinsman may bring you this letter. If she does, you must leave the package at Dumplings. But at any rate see that I hear. Give my love to Mary Chapman & tell her that I was very sorry to leave town without coming there but could not. dont forget to tell her this. I sorrow to see poor little only only Annie. Give my love to her & make her understand it.

Yrs A. W. W.

<sup>Do not let the</sup>
I left a pocket book marked with my name which I should like sent out.

Mrs Maria W Chapman.

11. West Street.

Boston.

Politeness of Miss Tupper